(Special to The Evening World RACE TRACK, GRAVESEND, June 2.—The weather to-day was ideal for racing. It was of the sort that makes man and beast feel at their best. The breeze was cool, but without a chill, and the sun was warm, but not uncomforte

The track was in splendid shape and very fast. The programme was one of the most attractive of the meeting, the Domino Han licap, in which Sir Walter, Rubicon, Declare and Gotham were engaged, being the feature.

The attendance was up to the Saturday average, and the several thousand persons present kept the layers of odds persons present kept the layers of odds busy throughout the afternoon.

Riley Grannan was a visitor at the track. He said he would not make a book to-day, preferring to wait and watch how the system worked.

Before the races an autioneer from Tattersall's tried to sell a number of yearlings and racehorses, the property of W. J. Armstrong, Manhattan Stable and "a gentieman."

The top price was brought by Tiny H., a two-year-old bay filly, by imp. Sailor Prince, dam Daisy, which went to P. Kreiser for $150.

YOU ARE IN THE WRONG PEW

Then Baldwin Killed Youman and Made His Wife Exhibit Herself. (Special to The Evening World.)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June &-A young man named Youman was killed by P. M. W. Baldwin early this morn-latter's wife. Baldwin, having suspected his wife, said he was going to the country, but instead hid near the house and went in at the back door at a o'clock ints morning. Youman was found with Mrs Baldwin asleep. Baldwin called out: "Young man, you are in the wrong pew," and as Youman tried to escape he fired, killing him instantly.

Baldwin then made his wife go to the front perch and exhibit herself to the crowd that had gathered. Baldwin gave himself up. All are well connected.
